

Four former pupils win KS3 oracy competition

Teams from Victoria College and Haute Vallée School shared the top prize today – Friday 25 September – in the States Assembly's 'Mark My Words' oracy competition by a panel of judges. Jayden Ochieng, a student from Victoria College, was the individual winner for the best speech.